

21st June 2010

Dear Parents

During the final few weeks of term, The Vitreum Gallery at Merchant Taylors' Girls' School continues its programme of exploring the work of the region's leading artists with an in-depth study of Liverpool's most public sculptor, Tom Murphy. For the first time, all of Tom's maquettes and models of over 30 public monuments and commissions will be shown together. From the legendary Dixie Dean and John Lennon to the recent Ken Dodd sculpture at Lime Street station you will meet many Liverpool Heroes movingly depicted by one of Merseyside's favourite artists.

You are most welcome to visit the Gallery to view the exhibition and perhaps meet the artist himself.

Yours sincerely

Mick Gill
Director of Art

Tom with his design for the Liverpool Blitz Memorial