Dear PARENTS' NAME

As a celebration of Black History Month and the 200 years' anniversary of the abolition of the Slave Trade, Urban Voice, an innovative Gospel/inspirational group are coming to school on Thursday 16th October in the afternoon to give a live show for years 7 to 9 in the Centenary Hall. The event will consist of Gospel Singing, African drumming (including drum talk), dance, poetry (inspirational lyrics through rap), History and even African food. Girls will have the chance to volunteer to take part in the activities. The whole event will be recorded live. Each student will also receive a booklet to take home. The cost per student is £1 each.

If you would like your daughter to attend this event, please complete and return the reply slip below together with £1.

Yours sincerely

Mrs JA Thompson
Director of Music
