We seek to appoint a well-qualified and enthusiastic graduate to join our Modern Foreign Languages Department from January 2018. Applicants should be capable of teaching French from KS2-KS4, including GCSE. The ability to teach Spanish to KS3 would be an advantage.

The school is a member of HMC. We have a long record of outstanding achievement, high educational standards and strong pastoral care.

There are currently 760 boys in the school, of whom 160 are in the Sixth Form and 160 in the Junior School. Founded in 1620, the school has since that time been providing an academic and disciplined education for local boys from a wide range of backgrounds.
