Dear Parents,

We are offering Year 11 students the opportunity to see the Spymonkeys production of 'A Christmas Carol' at The Playhouse Theatre in Liverpool on Thursday 13th December 2018.

'A Christmas Carol' is a GCSE examination text and therefore the performance will prove very useful to students and should enhance their understanding of the plot, characterisation and themes of the novel.

The performance takes place at 1.30pm on December 13th and morning lessons will take place as usual on that day. We intend to leave school by coach at 12.30pm, directly after lunch. The cost of the trip will be £17.80, which includes the price of a ticket and transport by coach to and from the Playhouse Theatre, this will be added to your next school fee bill. As yet, the running time of the production has not been released by the theatre, but we hope to return to school before the school buses depart. We will inform you of our expected return time as soon as we have that information.

Should you wish your daughter to attend this theatre visit please return the slip, fully completed by Friday 30th November.

Yours sincerely,

E Neophytou
