After the Easter break, all PSHE sessions will be used for private study and I would be grateful if you could discuss with your daughter the importance of using non-contact time in school for private study. Can I also remind parents that students are not permitted to attend private tuition sessions during the school day. Tuition of this kind should only be arranged outside of school hours.

If you have any queries about the information above, please do not hesitate in contacting me.

Yours faithfully

Mr Lawell
Head of Sixth Form
