Merchant Taylors' Girls' School (MTGS) Aims and Ethos

Merchant Taylors' Girls' School is an independent, day school for girls aged 11-18 which is part of the Merchant Taylors' family of schools. Based in Crosby, Liverpool: it is one of the leading girls' schools in the North West. This non-denominational Christian school has an extraordinary warmth which comes from the good relationships that dedicated staff and motivated girls have with each other. A single-sex environment encourages girls to express themselves, to seek help when they need it, to practise leadership roles and to reach for the top.

The Aims of Merchant Taylors' Schools

- To maintain the Schools' position as one of the North West's leading academic schools.
- In addition to providing an academic, disciplined education, to offer a diverse range of extra-curricular activities, so that pupils leave as rounded, confident and balanced members of society, well-prepared for further education and their careers.
- To maintain the Schools' social mix and enable as many pupils as possible from disadvantaged backgrounds to benefit from the Schools' academic success and wide range of activities through the Schools' own assisted places scheme.

How we will meet our aims

- To employ high quality staff with the appropriate professional skills, experience and qualifications.
- To continue to develop first class, up to date facilities.
- To maintain the Bursary Fund.
- To retain single-sex education by recruiting sufficient pupils.
