

STANFIELD PREPARATORY, MERCHANT TAYLORS' SCHOOL

ENGLISH AS ADDITIONAL LANGUAGE (EAL) POLICY

Contents

1. Overview
2. Definition of English as an additional language (EAL)
3. Objectives for Stanfield, Merchant Taylors' School in relation to EAL
4. Identifying EAL pupils
5. Whole school language development
6. Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS)
7. Additional provisions for EAL pupils

1. Overview

1.1 Stanfield Preparatory Merchant Taylors' School (Stanfield):

- Promote equality of opportunity for all learners for whom English is an additional language.
- Deliver a broad and balanced curriculum which reflects the needs of pupils for whom English is an additional language.
- Ensure EAL pupils reach their full potential, promoting intellectual, emotional, social and physical development, allowing them to emerge as confident and well-rounded individuals.

2. Definition of English as an additional language

2.1 EAL learners are defined as:

A pupil is recorded to have English as an additional language if they are exposed to a language at home that is known or believed to be other than English. This measure is not a measure of English language proficiency.' (DfE Schools Pupils and their Characteristics, July 2020).

3. Objectives of Stanfield Preparatory, Merchant Taylors' School in relation to EAL

3.1 Stanfield Preparatory, Merchant Taylors' School aim to:

- Support EAL pupils' well-being by welcoming them into the Stanfield and Merchant Taylors' Schools community, supporting their development of English fluency, as well as promoting confidence and self-esteem.
- Provide pastoral support in the form of a key link member of staff (where possible this should be their class teacher).
- Promote academic achievement by grouping EAL pupils according to cognitive level rather than English language level.
- Promote and encourage the development of the pupil's first language in order to facilitate concept development with their acquisition of English.
- Provide pupils with access to resources which are age appropriate, at an appropriate language level, and are linguistically and culturally appropriate.
- Use visuals and other strategies to support the pupil's access to the curriculum.
- Ensure that language and literacy are taught within the context of all subjects.
- Actively liaise with parents to help them support their child's learning.

- Facilitate parents' access to school life by providing a key link member of staff to communicate with them (where possible this will be a teacher able to converse in the parent's first language).
- Provide staff with professional development to support their knowledge of EAL pedagogy and their skills for teaching EAL pupils.
- Celebrate multilingual skills and promote linguistic diversity with all pupils.

4. Identifying EAL pupils

4.1 EAL pupils wishing to enrol at Stanfield Preparatory, Merchant Taylors' School, undertake the following process:

- Cognitive Ability Test (CAT4)
- Provide a recent school report
- Interview with the Head of School or member of SLT

The Head of School has the final decision on an offer of placement.

4.2 Stanfield Preparatory, Merchant Taylors' School use The Bell Foundation to suggest teaching strategies for supporting EAL pupils in the classroom.

5. Whole school language development

5.1 All teachers need to consider the language demands, as well as the content of the curriculum and plan how they can support pupils' development of English expression and literacy across the curriculum.

5.2 All teachers are expected to support EAL pupils with their development of subject specific language and written ability. The following inclusive teaching strategies may support EAL pupils' development:

- Use pictures and videos whenever possible to aid understanding
- Provide exemplar resources
- Use translated subject glossaries
- Allow pupils to use dictionaries or translators during lessons
- Consider grouping/pairing EAL pupils with strong non-EAL peers
- Identify and pre-teach subject specific terminology/phrases
- Discreetly check their understanding of the task set
- Speak slowly
- Deliver short concise instructions

- Monitor their development of English language
  - Allow extra time to respond to a verbally presented questions
  - Provide sentence starter/ paragraph starters
- 5.3 Provide opportunity to access their first language with literature and multi-media resources.
- 5.4 Provide an extra curricula enrichment program to support EAL pupils with their development of English language and provide ample social opportunities to support spoken expression and integration into the Stanfield and Merchant Taylors' community.
- 5.5 Provide opportunities to celebrate international languages.

6. EARLY YEARS FOUNDATION STAGE (EYFS)

- 6.1 In relation to EAL pupils at EYFS, it is the responsibility of the class teacher to encourage the pupil to use their home language in play and learning whenever possible, to support their language development at home, and to ensure that they also have sufficient opportunities to learn and reach a good standard in English Language.

Non-verbal communication cards are used by both pupils and staff, along with a visual timetable of the day's activities. Pupils participate in both one-to-one sessions with an adult to introduce new vocabulary and they are involved in small group sessions to encourage conversations. Dual language stories are available for the children to look at when in school and share with parents at home.

7. Additional provision for EAL pupils

- 7.1 Stanfield Preparatory, Merchant Taylors' School support EAL pupils' well-being by providing them with a key link member of staff, who facilitates pastoral sessions focusing on the pupil's well-being; this is provided on an individual needs basis. This will usually be the child's class teacher.
- 7.2 Where an EAL pupil requires individual High Quality Inclusive Teaching strategies, a Pupil Profile will be created to advise teachers of specific strategies to support the pupil's progress. The Bell Foundation Assessment Framework supports the identification of such strategies, as well as supporting the tracking of the pupil's language proficiency and providing formative and summative assessment.
- 7.2 Additional learning support provision for EAL pupils is provided based on the pupil's individual needs and their academic progress, which is monitored by the Stanfield Merchant Taylors' School tracking system and teacher feedback. For those pupils requiring additional support, Stanfield Merchant Taylors'

School provide an EAL support teacher to develop their proficiency in English.
The pupil will follow an Individual Learning Plan (ILP).

Policy reviewed:	January 2023
Approved by:
To be revised:	January 2024