Merchant Taylors' School, Liverpool

Visiting Music Teacher – Brass Required immediately, flexible hours.

We are seeking a creative and experienced Visiting Music Teacher of Brass to teach the pupils of Merchant Taylors' School on a casual basis. This is an exciting opportunity to join the enthusiastic Music Department at Merchant Taylors' School. You will be responsible for preparing and giving lessons in Brass (any specialism considered but a willingness to teach more than one Brass instrument is essential) to pupils in our Primary and Secondary Schools (including 6th form) in line with the agreed timetable, and in preparation for ABRSM examinations. We are seeking a casual working arrangement whereby the hours of work will be flexible based on pupil interest.

Candidates are strongly encouraged to visit the school website for more information about our thriving school, which offers an exceptionally rich curriculum and strong sense of community www.merchanttaylor.com

The safeguarding responsibilities of the post include:

- The provision of a safe environment in which children and young people feel heard
- Being aware of the indicators of abuse and neglect
- Ensuring vigilance in recognising changes in behaviour or mood
- Reporting safeguarding concerns in line with the School's Safeguarding Children and Child Protection Policy
- Attending Safeguarding training and updates as requested by the School

The duties of this role meet the definition of regulated activity relevant to children and an enhanced DBS check with children's barred list is appropriate.

School Safeguarding Statement

The School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Applicants will be required to undergo safeguarding checks appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS). The post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and the School is therefore permitted to ask job applicants to declare all convictions and cautions (including those which are "spent" unless they are "protected" under the DBS filtering rules) in order to assess their suitability to work with children.
